

LRIS Forwarding Fee Schedules

Please use the fee schedule which corresponds to the type of matter and the referral date. Forwarding fees are calculated based on attorneys' fees earned throughout the entirety of the matter.

All corresponding accounting and documentation (including but not limited to: court awards, Compromise & Release agreements, Social Security Administration benefits decisions, signed settlement agreements) shall be submitted to the LRIS.

Settlement documentation shall include: total settlement amount, attorneys' fees, itemized costs, the amount received by the client, a copy of the signed fee agreement. Forwarding fees to the LRIS are paid out of the attorneys' fees and are not to be billed to the client or subtracted from the client's portion of a settlement.

*Forwarding fees are not due on matters referred on the Low Fee Panels
