

Timothy Moppin Installed as BASF's 2015 President

December 10 -- San Francisco - Timothy Moppin, a partner at Kaufman Dolowich & Voluck, was officially installed as 2015 BASF President on December 10 at The Bar Association of San Francisco's Annual Membership Luncheon and Installation of Officers.

In his inaugural speech, Moppin highlighted some areas he wants to focus on in 2015, which include access to justice issues; pro bono service; and a renewed commitment to diversity in the legal profession.

The initiatives he will work on in 2015 include Meet Your Judges forums for members of the community; a call to action to encourage more members to give back with pro bono service; a continuation of the It Starts With a Day volunteer service projects.

Moppin also talked about the release of the 2015 Goals and Timetable Report on Minority Hiring and Retention report which will be published in the summer.

###

The Bar Association of San Francisco (BASF) is a nonprofit voluntary membership organization of over 8,000 attorneys, law students and legal professionals in the Bay Area. Founded in 1872, BASF is one of the largest and most dynamic metropolitan bar associations in the U.S., with a long and distinguished record of community action, public service and service to the legal profession.