- Appointments required.
- Experienced volunteer attorneys provide brief consultations (up to 30 minutes) and referrals.
- Areas of law covered: family, immigration and landlord tenant.
- If you need an interpreter, let us know when you ask for an appointment. A Spanish interpreter will be available.
- When you schedule your appointment, the staff member will ask you to describe your legal issue. They will also ask you a series of demographic questions. These questions are not mandatory, but this data helps us get the grants that fund these clinics and allows us to provide free services. While the data is sought for our funder, your name will remain confidential and it will not be shared. Please answer these questions if you can.

How should I prepare for my consultation?

- Prepare sus documentos y reúna los números del caso.

Create a timeline of events and gather relevant documents that relate to the timeline. Documents include all that have been filed and relate to your matter.

- Practice explaining your legal issue in five minutes or less.

Write down questions to ask.

- Come to your appointment 10 minutes early.
- Keep an eye out for a call in the days leading up to your appointment.

A staff member will call you to confirm your appointment and answer any questions. If you realize that you are unable to come to the clinic, please call The Women's. Spots are limited and this will allow another person to get scheduled for a consult.
