COURT APPOINTMENTS — GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

In order to be appointed by the Superior Court as attorney of record in Juvenile Dependency cases, an attorney must be a member of the Juvenile Dependency Law Panel, and agree to the following:

- I. Agree to comply with the Lawyer Referral and Information Service \(LRIS\) Rules and Annual Attorney Membership Agreement, as well as the Dependency Representation Program Policies & Procedures Manual.
- II. Appear in court on the assigned date at the assigned times.
- III. Accept, as sole compensation, the monies awarded by the Court and pay the required fee to the LRIS.
- IV. Maintain a designated office open to the public in San Francisco available to receive mail, accept service and meet with clients during regular business hours; list the office address on all web pages, court pleadings, business cards and stationery; and list the areas of practice for which you have been approved to participate in the LRIS on your website as well.
- V. Applicant has active certification as a Child Welfare Law Specialist OR can provide verification that during the year prior to submitting this application, applicant attended at least 15 hours of training relating directly to representation of minors and parents in Dependency Court. All trainings must be Continuing Legal Education (CLE) approved for credit by the State Bar of California (State Bar), unless they are CLE approved by another state. (Please note: approval to receive CLE credit for this Dependency panel does not certify the training is eligible for credit from the State Bar. Visit the State Bar's webpage for information on activities that qualify for MCLE.)

I, the undersigned, have read and understand the foregoing conditions for membership to the Juvenile Dependency Law Court Appointment panel, including the Lawyer Referral and Information Service (LRIS) Annual Attorney Membership Agreement as well as the Dependency Representation Program Policies & Procedures Manual and agree to be bound by them.
